DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. Claims 1 and 3-7 are pending.
Claims 1 and 7 are rejected.
Claim 4 is objected.
Claims 3, 5 and 6 are withdrawn.
Claims 2 and 8-13 are cancelled.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on May 28, 2008 has been entered.

Election/Restrictions

3. Claims 3, 5 and 6 remain withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on July 14, 2005.

Response to Amendment

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The rejection of claim 7 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sharett et al. (US 3,215,665) is withdrawn, due to the amendment to claim 7, filed April 28, 2008.

5. The rejection of claim 7 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hardy et al. (US 2,962,533) is withdrawn, due to the amendment to claim 7, filed April 28, 2008.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The rejection of claim 1 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cinque et al. (J. Med. Chem., April 1998, Vol. 41, No. 9, pp. 1540-1554) is withdrawn, due to the amendment to claim 1, filed April 28, 2008.

7. The rejection of claim 7 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) being unpatentable over Hardy et al. (US 2,962,533) is withdrawn, due to the amendment to claim 7, filed April 28, 2008.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

11. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

12. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Van de Castle et al. (US 3,332,924).

Van de Castle et al. teach compounds which are the same as or differ only as a homolog to compounds having the claimed formula (1), when r is 0, m is 2-4 and p is 1 (see entire disclosure, in particular column 1, lines 30-63).

Where the instant compounds differ from the compounds of Van de Castle et al., one having ordinary skill in the art would find the instant compounds to be obvious over the homologous compounds of Van de Castle et al. because compounds that are homologs (compounds differing regularly by the successive addition of the same chemical group, e.g., by $-CH_2-$ groups) are generally of sufficiently close structural similarity that there is a presumed expectation that such compounds possess similar properties. In re Wilder, 563 F.2d 457, 195 USPQ 426 (CCPA 1977).

13. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Minami et al. (EP 0 466 096 A1).

Minami et al. teach compounds which are the same as or differ only as a homolog to compounds having the claimed formula (1a), when W is a sulfonyl, q is 1, p is 1 and R^a-R^c is a hydrogen or an alkyl group having 1 to 4 carbon atoms (see entire disclosure, in particular page 2, line 33 to page 6, line 40).

Where the instant compounds differ from the compounds of Minami et al., one having ordinary skill in the art would find the instant compounds to be obvious over the homologous compounds of Minami et al. because compounds that are homologs (compounds differing regularly by the successive addition of the same chemical group, e.g., by $-CH_2-$ groups) are generally of sufficiently close structural similarity that there is a presumed expectation that such compounds possess similar properties. In re Wilder, 563 F.2d 457, 195 USPQ 426 (CCPA 1977).

Allowable Subject Matter

14. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

15. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to ROSALYND KEYS whose telephone number is (571)272-0639. The examiner can normally be reached on M, R & F 5:30-7:30 am & 1-5 pm; T & W 5:30 am-4 pm.
